Business Assistance Waivers and
Permission to Communicate via E mail

The undersigned desires Business Assistance Services from NEDCO. The undersigned agrees to cooperate with surveys and data collection about the business, its services and its employees with the understanding that this information will be reported to NEDCO's funding sources, including public sources such as Community Development Block Grants in aggregate form for monitoring purposes only.

The undersigned agrees to release information to NEDCO and to NEDCO staff and consultants for purposes of providing Business Assistance. Personal financial information divulged through this process remains confidential with NEDCO.

In the course of providing Business Assistance, NEDCO staff and consultants agree not to a) recommend goods or services from sources in which he/she/they have financial or other interest or b) accept fees or commissions from the undersigned for provision of Business Assistance except as may be established and published for submission of formal Applications to NEDCO loan programs and/or to close such loans. In consideration of NEDCO's providing management and technical assistance, the undersigned waives all claims against NEDCO personnel or its partner organizations arising from this assistance.

In the event that the undersigned has access to and uses electronic mail, the undersigned confirms permission for NEDCO personnel to communicate as appropriate by electronic means.
